SHARED VIRTUAL SJTU STUDENT

A common starting point for every group | Plausible course case, not a statistical description of all SJTU students

LI MING 20 years old	YEAR 2 Engineering student	RESIDENCE Four-person dormitory	DAILY SETTING Mainly on campus

Li Ming studies mainly on campus and occasionally travels off campus or visits his family home. Activity data use different time units.

CATEGORY	SHARED ACTIVITY FACTS	INFORMATION PROVIDED / NOT PROVIDED
Mobility	Walking or cycling on campus: about 20 km/week Metro: 2 one-way trips/week Ride-hailing: 2 one-way trips/month	Metro: 15 km/trip Ride-hailing: 10 km/trip; usually travels alone
Food	21 main meals/week 3 beef or lamb; 8 other meat 5 fish, egg, dairy or soy; 5 mainly plant based	Most meals are eaten in campus canteens 2 takeaway meals/week are already included in the 21 meals
Dormitory and energy	Four students share one room Room electricity: 120 kWh in the most recent 30 days Hot showers: 6/week, about 8 minutes each	Electricity is reported for the whole room Hot-water energy source and quantity are not provided
Goods and deliveries	Online shopping: 3 parcels/month Clothing: 2 items/teaching semester	Materials, prices, packaging weights and product lifetimes are not provided
Intercity travel	Family visits: 2 round trips/teaching semester by high-speed rail	About 220 km each way
Waste and recycling	General dormitory waste: about 3 small bags/week Recyclable bottles or cans: about 3 items/week	Waste mass and treatment route are not known

HOW TO USE THE SHARED FACTS

Keep shared values unchanged, although your calculator need not include every activity. Do not present missing information as a verified fact.	Label every group-added assumption and explain why your group needs it. Avoid counting the same underlying activity more than once.